How can information resources and databases help with my studies?

Web search / Google:

- Google should not be the first and only resource! Anyone can post anything online.
- There are no clear criteria for measuring the quality of online content.
- How can we trust that someone is really an expert?
- Content can be intentionally misleading (fake news).
- Outdated content.

INSTEAD:

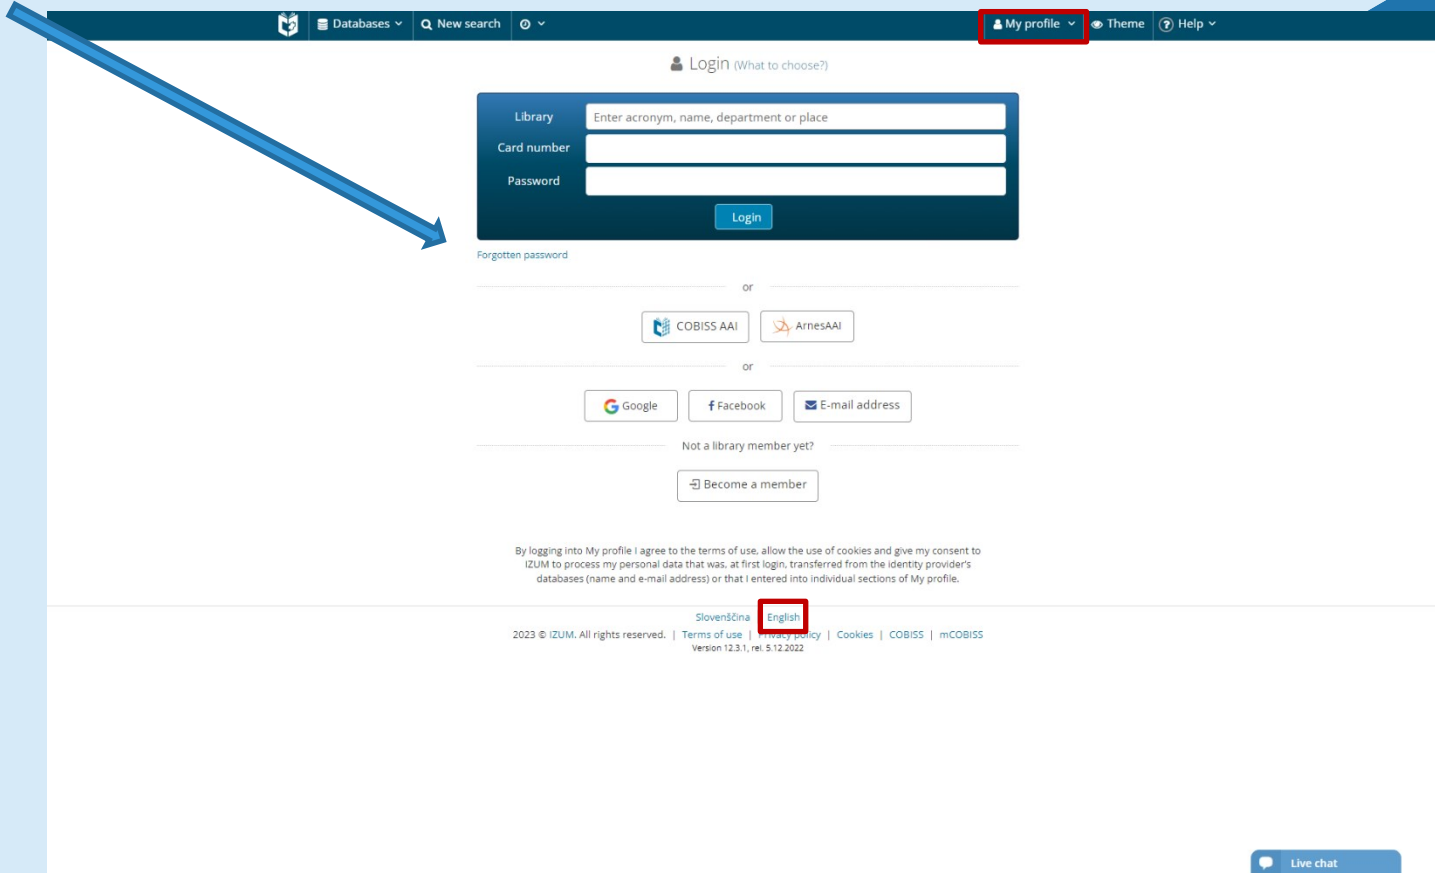

- Websites of well-known and verified organizations.
- E-resources with scientific articles (Ebsco et al.).
- Google Scholar (the full text is not always accessible).
- Always keep an eye on the publication date.

How to use Remote Access?

- You need:
  - Library card number
  - Password
- Password was assigned when you became member of Celje Public Library
- Forgotten password? You can change it yourself ...

Forgotten password?

„My Cobiss Profile Login“
